

Glitz N Glam Modeling Program Participation Rules

Glam U promotes positivity. Therefore, students should always present positive attitudes and a willingness to learn. Students should respect their instructors and peers at all times. No profanity, foul or rude language is allowed.

Attire: Plain black t-shirt and black tights. Hair should always be pulled back from face. (Sleek ponytails & buns are highly suggested) Heels are required for girls ages 12 and up. (No wedge heels)

Students are expected to be on time. Classes will always start promptly.

In order for students to participate in Glam U photoshoots & other activities, each student MUST have attended at least two prior classes in advance of the scheduled activity.

It is encouraged that each student participates in as many consecutive classes as possible.

Two Strike Rule: First strike – Warning and letter sent home for parent/guardian signature. Second strike – Expulsion from the Glitz N Glam Modeling Program.

A registration form, demographics questionnaire, audio/photo/video media release form, and accident waiver/release of liability form is required for all students.
